PASTOR RUSSELL TO TALK IN WASHINGTON

"To Hell and Back in the Bible Way," to Be Topic at Sunday Meeting.

Pastor Russell, well known author and Bible lecturer, president of the International Bible Students Association, the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, and other religious organizations centering in Brooklyn, will visit this city next Sunday and deliver an address at the National Theatre, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The anti-hell-fire teachings of the Brooklyn pastor during the past thirty-five years have made him famous throughout the world, and his topic here next Sunday will be a characteristic one, "To Hell and Back in the Bible Way."

Pastor Russell, who is known as the "world's ubiquitous preacher," is said to be one of the greatest living defenders of the Bible, and has had one of the most remarkable careers of any of the religious workers of the day.

He speaks under the auspices of the International Bible Students Association, his addresses are free, and no aid is asked. The purpose of his work is to restore and build up belief and arouse enthusiasm for the Bible as the inspired word of God. He has never worked along sectarian lines and makes no effort to build up one form of faith as superior to the others. He is a member of several churches and has been a member of the various branches of sectarian churches over another. Thousands have been led in this way to restore their faith in the scriptures.

The so-called destructive higher critics have been a special object of attack by this defender of the old faith, and the modern critics also have received their share of censure. Pastor Russell declares that while he believes that the higher critics do much to clarify facts concerning the scriptures, he is nevertheless of the opinion that they do more to destroy faith. The Bible, he says, cannot be improved upon, and the deeper one's study is, the greater will be his faith, and less prone to attempt to supplant it with any other form.

Despite Pastor Russell's belief in the truth of the Bible, he does not preach the literalness of the doctrine of a hereafter of real fire and brimstone. What he does believe is that the language of the Bible is figurative in many places, but the fundamental principle underlying is the eternal destruction of the finally and incorrigibly wicked.

Since the outbreak of hostilities in Europe special attention has been drawn to Pastor Russell's teachings because of the fact that for many years he has in his lectures and in his books on Bible study which have attained an immense circulation, predicted a time of great trouble and distress to commence in the autumn of 1914 and that it would become worldwide. The pastor declares this view is well substantiated by the Bible prophecies, and believes the present struggle is a partial fulfillment of these and the prelude to the "Battle of Armageddon," which will result in social revolution and

FOOD EXPORTS TAKE BIG JUMP

Present Rate Will Exhaust Available Wheat Supply by April 1.

WAR MAY CHANGE CASE

If Constantinople Falls Russia May be Able to Supply Europe Through Mediterranean.

The exports of breadstuffs in December last reached the enormous total of $5,586,000. In December, 1913, the exports amounted to only $11,182,000.

Wheat exports in December aggregated 28,852,217 bushels, or five times the quantity in December, 1913. The average export price last December was $1.25 per bushel, against 59 cents in December one year earlier. Of 30 the month's export movement was 20 per cent more than in December, 1913, being 1,813,317 bushels, compared with 1,572,230.

Oats showed a larger total in December than in the corresponding year 1913. The outward movement totaled 2,263,421 bushels in December last, against 39,798 bushels in December, 1913, and 5,202,717 in the year. Corn exports in December, 1914, amounted to 4,522,000 bushels, against 79,124 bushels in December, 1913.

World Exhaust Supply.

Fresh beef in December showed a total export of 6,594,548 pounds, against 524,620 pounds in December, 1913, and 6,618,521 in the twelve months ending with December, 1913. Pickled and salted beef doubled in quantity of exports, the December total being 2,651,980 pounds, against 1,467,715 pounds in the same month of 1913.

For the year the value of these exports was as follows: Corn, $11,811,000 in 1914 against $8,214,000 in 1913; oats $19,966,500 in 1914 against $1,683,000 in 1913; wheat $12,246,000 bushels, worth $19,381,000 in 1914, against $9,360,000 bushels, worth $6,901,000 in 1913; flour $1,882,000 worth in 1914 against $4,568,000 the previous year; most and dairy products, $12,282,000 in 1914, against $13,946,000 in 1913; cotton, 6,320,000 bales, worth $65,888,000 in 1914 against $62,000 bales, worth $57,087,000 in 1913.

The figures indicate that the 200,000,000 bushels of American wheat available for export will be exhausted within the next two months, if the present rate of export continues.

There is also every indication statisticians say that the December rate of increase will be maintained. There is a weak spot, however, in this demand. That is the possibility of the fall of Constantinople. If Constantinople falls and transportation is opened through to the Mediterranean, it will be possible for Russia to dump nearly 20,000,000 bushels into the European market.

TRIO OF ARTISTS DELIGHT AUDIENCE

Mme. Juka Culp, Emilio de Gogorza, and Von Bos Appear at National.

Mme. Juka Culp and Emilio de Gogorza, who "What opulence! Add Von Bos, and you have the trio of artists. These three appeared yesterday afternoon at the New National Theater in a program that will not soon be forgotten. The concert was given by Mrs. Juka Culp's program was going to be classic. That was at once felt to be a poser. We knew there would be Brahms and Hugo Wolf; yet it is not what she sings, but the way she sings it. Every song she sings so far transcends technique or the academic, that there is no question of classic or not classic. It is life—life steeped in color. Her voice, having the high range of the mezzo soprano, is richly endowed with the emotional timbres of the contralto. The mood—whatever it is—tender, grave, stately, peaceful, or gay—that is her song; it is her whole song. Four songs of Brahms: the "Botchaft," "Vor dem Fenster," "Schwalbe," "Feldensamkeit," three songs of Wagner: "Go Lovely, Rose," "The Sleep That Flits On Baby's Eyes," "Rogers' "Wind Song," and "The Star." Strauss' "Gipsy" and "Traum," Hugo Wolf's "Du denkst mit einem Mädchen," and "Heimweh"; these and two extra numbers, "Long Ago," and an Indian Lullaby. "Entrance" were Madame Culp's contribution to yesterday's program.

Emilio Gogorza's voice is of the greatest beauty, vibrant with fire, and intelligence. French, English, Italian and his native Spanish he sings with apparently equal facility. He sang yesterday a serenade of Bizet, two songs by Alarcos, Elgar's "Foghorn" and "Invictus," by Bruno Huhn.

An appreciation that omitted Von Bos from mention in this performance would be incomplete. "Is not Mr. Von Bos, a big part of your program?" the writer asked Mme. Culp.

She replied by laughingly referring the question to the gentleman in question.

"Indeed, he is quite half," she finally said, seriously. "So he is—whoever he is, who plays the accompaniment to the modern song acceptably."

Play to Furnish Tuition.

A large percentage of the receipts for the performance February 3 of Fluke O'Hara's comedy, "The Romance," will be given by the Columbia Theater to Trinity College, for an endowment to give a four-year course without charge to some Washington girl. The latter auxiliary board of the college, under the leadership of Mrs. Thomas H. Carter, has charge of the plans.

OBITUARY.

Col. John A. Joyce was buried yesterday at Oak Hill Cemetery, among the trees he had written about so often in poems that had endeared him to thousands of Washingtonians.

Funeral services were held at 1214 Fourteenth street, Columbia Lodge, No. 2, F. A. M., was in charge of the services. Rev. Carson Post, G. R., and the Royal Legion—for Col. Joyce was a soldier as well as a poet—were represented.

Capt. William Emerson, Capt. A. H. G. Richardson, Lieut. Sheridan Forree, and Capt. H. C. Pearson were honorary pallbearers. Col. Joyce was buried beneath the tombstone which he had erected recently.

Exports Increase in Year.

In response to numerous urgent requests for information regarding the exports of wheat and other foodstuffs from the United States during the past year, the Department of Commerce has compiled a statement covering December and the twelve months ending with December, 1914. The statement shows that December exports totaled $5,586,200, against $11,182,000 in December of the preceding year, and December meats, $12,282,000, against $13,946,000 in the same month a year earlier. Wheat exports in December aggregated 28,852,217 bushels, or five times the quantity in December, 1913. The average export price last December was $1.25 per bushel, against 59 cents in December one year earlier.
